

Department of Philosophy

I. BA Philosophy Programme Outcome:

1. Identify the nature and scope of Philosophy
2. Analyze the relation between logic and epistemology.
3. Evaluate the role of logic in human life.
4. Explain the major concepts, methods and approaches of Indian and Western philosophy.
5. Identifying a philosophical problem and prepare a research proposal.
6. Create a critical attitude towards ethical issues.
7. Evaluate socio-political problems.
8. Make a debate on gender issues.
9. Summaries the characteristics of classical Indian schools of thought.
10. Familiarize the contemporary trends in philosophy.

II. BA Philosophy Course outcome

Semester I

1. Identify the subject matter of philosophy.
2. Familiarize the fundamental issues of philosophy.
3. Discover the terminologies used in philosophical discussions.
4. Understand the role of philosophy in education.
5. Evaluate the role of value education.
6. Describe features of different philosophies of education.

Semester II

1. Understand the basics of deductive logic.
2. Construct reasoning exercises in deductive reasoning.
3. List out the laws of thought.
4. Identify the issues related to state and society.
5. Analyze the role of freedom and justice in society.
6. Familiarize the notions like, liberalism, capitalism, social contract and democracy.

Semester III

1. Understand the major philosophical trends in ancient and medieval western philosophy.
2. Evaluate the major philosophical contributions of Plato and Aristotle.
3. Discuss the nature of medieval western philosophy.
4. Explain the nature of inductive logic.
5. Compare and contrast with deductive and inductive logic.
6. Critically analyze Mill's experimental method.
7. Find out the methods of self-management presented in Gita, Buddhism and Chinese philosophy.
8. Create awareness for the need of inculcating philosophical ideals in one's life.
9. Examine the necessity of self-management.

Semester IV

1. Identify the basic concepts of symbolic logic.
2. Distinguish between propositional logic and predicate logic.
3. Examine truth table technique.
4. Distinguish between truth and validity.
5. Explain the feature of classical Indian philosophy.
6. Judge the view of Nishkamakarma.
7. Justify the identity between Brahman and Atman.
8. Discuss the basics of philosophy of religion.
9. Debate the multi- religious-cultural situation of the country.
10. Classify the religious values.

Semester V

1. Understand the fundamental concepts of Modern philosophy.
2. Evaluate Cartesian method.
3. Justify Kant's contribution as a Copernican revolution in the field of philosophy.
4. Describe the features of Vedic schools of thought.
5. Summarize the theories of truth propounded by Vedic schools of thought.
6. Analyze the different theories of causation explained in Vedic schools of thought.
7. Identify the fundamental concepts of ethics.
8. Evaluate the role of ethics in life.
9. Summarize Aristotelian notion of ethics.
10. Recognize the features of Non-Vedic schools of thought.
11. Differentiate between Anekandavada and Anasthmavada.
12. Verify the relevance of Astangamarga.
13. Recognize the Gandhian values.
14. Debate the relevance of Gandhian ideals in Modern society.
15. Interpret the concept of Swadeshi.

Semester VI

1. Describe problem of Gender.
2. Analyze the process of social transformation.
3. Justify the notion of gender equality.
4. Recognize the major trends of Twentieth century Western philosophy.
5. Examine the contributions of Phenomenology and Hermeneutics.
6. Judge the philosophical arguments of Foucault and Derrida.
7. Create environmental consciousness.
8. Debate environmental issues.
9. Recommend certain philosophical approaches to environmental issues.
10. Evaluate Swami Vivekananda as Neo Vedantin.
11. Analyze Kerala's contribution to Modern Indian philosophy.
12. Evaluate the role of Yoga and meditation in contemporary world.
13. Identify the basic concept of Applied ethics.
14. Discuss the ethical issues related with medical, business and Media.
15. Verify the ethical position in Euthanasia debate.

Department of Philosophy

MA Philosophy Programme Outcome

1. Identify the major philosophical problems.
2. Compare and contrast with Western and Indian epistemological theories.
3. Apply the logical reasoning in different situations of life.
4. Evaluate the environmental issues on the basis of philosophical stand points.
5. Suggest the alternative development and technical strategies which are based on philosophical consciousness.
6. Familiarize with the art of philosophizing.
7. Analyze the contemporary developments in the field of philosophy, such as Continental philosophy, Analytic philosophy, philosophy of Science, Philosophy of Film and Philosophy of Gender.
8. Examine the major contributions of contemporary Indian Philosophers.
9. Evaluate the role of ethics in different professions.
10. Debate Socio-political issues.

Semester I

1. Define nature of philosophical problems.
2. Examine major theories of knowledge.
3. Debate Mind- body problem.
4. Apply various methods of reasoning.
5. Understand the relation between inductive and deductive reasoning.
6. Apply the logical techniques.
7. Evaluate the Indian theories of truth and error.
8. Analyze Pramanas.
9. Familiarize characteristics of Indian epistemology.
10. Identify the western epistemological notions.
11. Comprehend Western methods of philosophical analysis.
12. Investigate the epistemological notions presented in classical texts of Western philosophy.
13. Describe the problems and perspectives of moral philosophy.

14. Analyze the theoretical basis of ethics.
15. Apply the moral theories in contemporary life situations.

Semester II

1. Summarize the fundamentals of Symbolic logic
2. Recognize the method of symbolization.
3. Apply the rules of natural deduction.
4. Familiarize Indian metaphysical theories.
5. Compare and contrast the theories of reality explained in different Indian schools of thought.
6. Critically analyze the Vedanta concept of metaphysics.
7. Examine the developments of Western metaphysics.
8. Evaluate the metaphysical views of Aristotle, Plato and Medieval philosophy.
9. Compare the metaphysical notions of Rationalism and Empiricism.
10. Comprehend the roots and development of Socio-political thought.
11. Analyze the impact of socio-political ideologies in contemporary society.
12. Apply the ideological analysis on socio-political facts.
13. Apply the ethical perspectives in different aspects of life.
14. Familiarize the methods of case based reasoning.
15. Evaluate the role of ethics in different professions, such as medicine, Business, Media and Computer.

Semester III

1. Comprehend the features of Modern Indian Thought.
2. Analyze the method of contemporary academic critical thinking of the Indian philosophical tradition.
3. Suggest the necessity of Humanistic approaches.
4. Identify the development of Continental philosophical theories.
5. Debate on postmodern trends.
6. Comprehend the method of phenomenological analysis.
7. Examine the nature and development of Vedantic systems.
8. Evaluate the role of Prasthanatraya in the development of Vedanta tradition.
9. Compare concept of reality presented in different Vedanta schools of thought.
10. Familiarize the fundamentals of Analytical philosophy.
11. Analyze the linguistic turn in Philosophy.

12. Evaluate the major trends in Analytical tradition; Formal and Ordinary language approaches.
13. Analyze the gender issues in the context of women's life world.
14. Evaluate the ideology and impact of feminism and feminist movements both in the West and in India.
15. Examine the applied and ethical dimensions of Gender.

Semester IV

1. Analyze the theoretical foundations of Gandhian philosophy.
2. Understand Gandhian ideology with reference to the functions of state and society.
3. Debate the relevance of Gandhian educational philosophy.
4. Identify the nature of philosophy of science.
5. Evaluate the notion of Scientific truth and scientific progress.
6. Examine the theories of Positivism, Falsificationism and Anarchism.
7. Examine the philosophy and tradition of Sree Narayana Guru.
8. Evaluate the method of philosophical analysis employed by Guru.
9. Debate on Socio-political ideology of Sree Narayana Guru.
10. Recognize the subject matter of Film philosophy.
11. Apply ideological analysis of film experience.
12. Comprehend the philosophy exhibited in the film.
13. Understand the central issues of environmental ethics.
14. Debate between anthropocentric and cosmic ethics.
15. Suggest the alternative environmental approaches.